The above-captioned matter came before the Montana Human Rights Commission (Commission) on May 30, 2003. The Commission considered Charging Party's objection to the Notice of Dismissal of her complaint. Charging Party requested oral argument but was unable to attend the scheduled hearing. The Commission considered the matter on the existing record and subsequent briefs. Admin. R. Mont. 24.9.1714(2)

After due consideration, the Commission concludes the record supports the conclusion that Charging Party was unable to establish by a preponderance of the evidence that she had been subject to discrimination based on age. See Mont. Code Ann. § 49-2-504(1)(a) Consequently, the Commission determines there was no abuse of discretion by the Human Rights Bureau in its issuance of a Notice of Dismissal. Admin. R. Mont. 24.9.1714(3)

Charging Party will have 90 days after the receipt of this order to petition a district court in the district where the alleged violation occurred for the appropriate relief. Mont. Code Ann. § 49-2-509(5) and Admin. R. Mont. 24.9.1714(5) If Charging Party fails to commence a civil action within 90 days, the claim is time barred. Id.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, that Charging Party's objection is overruled and notice of dismissal is affirmed.
